CLEMENTS PRIVATE TRUST

ECCLESIASTICAL TRUST STANDING DECLARATION
ACCIDENT RESPONSE & SPIRITUAL HARMONY NOTICE

Dated: July 16, 2025

To Whom It May Concern, including Officers, Agents, Insurance Adjusters, or Legal Entities:

Be it known and declared under ecclesiastical authority, spiritual jurisdiction, and divine alignment:

The Clements Private Trust, a private, non-commercial, ecclesiastical spiritual trust, hereby makes clear that in the event of an accident or collision involving a vehicle under the care or stewardship of this Trust or its Members:

1. Non-Participation in Civil Jurisprudence

This Trust does not participate in civil statutory law, public jurisdiction, or maritime/admiralty codes, and hereby declines all joinder into any such jurisdiction. This includes but is not limited to:
- Insurance statutes
- Corporate licensing mandates
- Legal fiction obligations

2. Spiritual Liability Only

The Clements Private Trust assumes no financial or statutory responsibility for damages to vehicles or property outside of the Trust, nor does it pursue compensation from any party through court systems or insurance frameworks. It is the full responsibility of the other party and their insurer to care for:
- Their own bodily harm or personal injury
- Their own vehicle or property damage

as per their insurance coverage and legal obligations within their voluntary jurisdiction.

3. Sanctity of Trust Property

Trust Property—defined as any asset, vehicle, or instrument spiritually and legally conveyed into the Clements Private Trust—is under divine protection, and no commercial lien, fine, claim, or judgment may be applied to it from any foreign jurisdiction. The Trust makes no commercial claim upon others, and expects none in return.

4. Declaration of Peace and Prayer

As a body of peace, we extend no enmity toward others. In the event of any incident, we offer prayers to the Creator of the Universe for the health, spiritual balance, and swift recovery of all involved.
However, any harm directed at Trust property or members must not be presumed to imply consent or waiver of rights.

5. Spiritual Enforcement Clause

Violation of this declaration—by pursuing claims, imposing laws foreign to this trust, or trespassing upon spiritual jurisdiction—shall be noted as:
- A spiritual violation,
- An act of war against a peaceful trust,
- And may result in the immediate revocation of all interaction with the violating party.

Signed and sealed with full standing under ecclesiastical authority and divine trust governance.

By:
Jonathan Daniel Clements
Ecclesiastical Executor
Clements Private Trust
Date: 07/16/2025

 [Thumbprint Seal Here – Ecclesiastical]